

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO LOAD LIVESTOCK

Marine Orders, Part 43; Cargo and Cargo handling – Livestock

Surveyor-in-Charge

.....
Name of Port

Australian Maritime Safety Authority

Notice is hereby given in accordance with provision 7.2 of Marine Orders Part 43 that it is proposed to ship livestock from a port in Australia as described below:

Vessel Name
Voyage number	Estimated Duration The estimated duration is to take into account the time from commencement of loading of livestock to completion of discharge. days

Vessel will be ready for pre-load inspection at:

Port	Berth
Date	Time

Details of Voyage

Planned load date and time (first port for multi-port load)

Load Port(s)	Discharge Port(s)

Details of Livestock

Species	Type	Average Mass	Number

The Vessel is / is not* carrying livestock on a short voyage (less than 24 hours). Where livestock is to be carried for a short voyage details of the means of containment are to be attached to the notification.

All equipment described in the Record of Equipment for the Australian Certificate for the Carriage of Livestock is / is not* in full working order.

Master of Vessel (or Agent) Signature ..... / / 20..... Date	Agent's address and phone number
--	---

* Delete as necessary. Details of non-operational equipment are to be attached to this notification. Where the master does not sign this form the information should be by means of attached communication from the vessel.